

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Submissions due April 23, 2023
through the submission form

2023 theme: Resistance and Recovery

The conference has eight panels; one reserved for hot topics, plus a keynote speaker. Other topics of interest include ICWA, Supreme Court updates, and an interactive ethics panel. Current TICA members with a focus on the tribal in-house practice of law who are interested in presenting are invited to submit panel proposals with up to three speakers. Moderators are optional, as MSU Law students are offered the opportunity.

Submit panel proposals, 300 words or less, through the form available at www.indigenoulawconference.com/cfp

Include the following information for each panelist:

- Name
- Email
- Position Title & Organization
- 150-word Biography
- TICA Membership Status

Want to speak at the Indigenous Law Conference?
Become a TICA member at www.tica.wildapricot.org

MSU Law will cover reasonable travel and lodging expenses.

